The property described above, in apparent good order, except as noted (contents and condition of contents of packages unknown), marked, consigned, and destined as indicated above, which said carrier (the word carrier being understood throughout this contract as meaning any person or corporation in possession of the property under the contract) agrees to carry to its usual place of delivery at said destination, if on its route, otherwise to deliver to another carrier on the route to said destination. It is agreed, as to each carrier of all or any of said property over all or any portion of said route to destination and as to each party at any time interested in all or any of said property, that every service to be performed hereunder shall be subject to all the conditions not prohibited by law, whether printed or written, herein contained, including those on the back hereof, which are hereby agreed to by the shipper and accepted for himself and his assigns.

Straight Bill of Lading. If this is a straight bill of lading, it is agreed that no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property unless such loss or damage shall occur while it is in the possession of the carrier operating the railroad, water line, express or motor vehicle over which the property is to be transported to the destination named herein, or while it is in the possession of a connecting carrier to which such property may be delivered or tendered by the carrier operating such railroad, water line, express or motor vehicle, and no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage occurring after the property has been delivered or tendered to the consignee or to a person authorized by him to receive it. No carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which is occasioned by the act of the shipper or owner, his agent or representative, or which arises from the inherent nature of the property. No carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which is occasioned by the act of God, the public enemy, quarantine, the authority of law, or the act or default of shipper or owner, or which results from riots or strikes, or which results from the nature of the goods, or from decay, or from any unavoidable cause. Except in case of negligence of the carrier, or its employees, no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which occurs while the property is stopped in transit upon the request of the shipper, owner or party entitled to make such request, or which occurs while the property is not in the actual possession of the carrier, or which occurs by reason of the acts or omissions of the consignor or the consignee, or which occurs while the property is in the possession of the consignor or consignee, or which occurs while the property is being loaded or unloaded by the consignor or consignee, or which occurs while the property is in the possession of any person not employed by the carrier and engaged in the service of transportation. Except in case of negligence of the carrier, or its employees, no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which occurs while the property is in the possession of any person not employed by the carrier and engaged in the service of transportation. Except in case of negligence of the carrier, or its employees, no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which occurs while the property is in the possession of any person not employed by the carrier and engaged in the service of transportation.

Rates. Each carrier over its own line shall be entitled to the rate applicable to the transportation of said property from point of shipment to point of destination, except that if the rate applicable to the transportation of said property from point of shipment to point of destination is lower than the rate applicable to the transportation of said property from point of shipment to the point at which said property is delivered to the next carrier, the rate applicable to the transportation of said property from point of shipment to point of destination shall be the rate applicable to the transportation of said property from point of shipment to the point at which said property is delivered to the next carrier.

Claims. Any claim for loss or damage to any of said property shall be made in writing to the carrier at its office or agency at the point of destination, or to the carrier at its office or agency at the point of origin, within nine months after the delivery of said property, or in case of failure to make delivery, within nine months after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed; and suit shall be instituted against any carrier only within two years and one day after the written notice of claim has been given to the carrier.

Terms. This is a straight bill of lading, subject to the classifications and tariffs in effect on the date of issue of this bill of lading, and to the rules and regulations of the carrier operating the railroad, water line, express or motor vehicle over which the property is to be transported to the destination named herein, or while it is in the possession of a connecting carrier to which such property may be delivered or tendered by the carrier operating such railroad, water line, express or motor vehicle, and no carrier shall be liable for loss or damage occurring after the property has been delivered or tendered to the consignee or to a person authorized by him to receive it. No carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which is occasioned by the act of the shipper or owner, his agent or representative, or which arises from the inherent nature of the property. No carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to any of said property which is occasioned by the act of God, the public enemy, quarantine, the authority of law, or the act or default of shipper or owner, or which results from riots or strikes, or which results from the nature of the goods, or from decay, or from any unavoidable cause. How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-346-1239. (It's free to call from the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to fax.com — it's a fax web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Wait a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a larger version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to Fax.Zero. (Inside, free, you can send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring. Hopefully, it will answer and spit out the test fax.

A Short Story For Engineers (3)

It turns out, the number of defects picked up by the scales was 0 after three weeks of production use. It should've been picking up at least a dozen a day, so maybe there was something wrong with the report. He filed a bug against it, and after some investigation, the engineers come back saying the report was actually correct. The scales really weren't picking up any defects, because all boxes that got to that point in the conveyor belt were good.

Puzzled, the CEO traveled down to the factory, and walks up to the part of the line where the precision scales were installed.

A few feet before the scale, there was a $20 desk fan, blowing the empty boxes out of the belt and into a bin.

"Oh, that," says one of the workers; "one of the guys put it there 'cause he was tired of walking over every time the bell rang."

Moral: In engineering, it pays to KISS (Keep It Simple, Stupid!).

TEST

Qualification Requirements Base Year – Benefit Year

Only qualified employees can receive benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act. A new benefit year begins every July 1. To qualify for benefits in a benefit year you must have creditable railroad earnings in the preceding calendar year (base year) totaling no more than a certain amount in any month. In addition, a new employee must have railroad service in at least 5 months of his or her first year of work in order to be eligible for benefits in the following benefit year.

The amount of earnings needed to qualify for benefits in a benefit year depends on the monthly compensation base in the base year. An employee is required to have base year earnings of not less than 2 1/2 times the monthly compensation base applicable to months in that base year. As the monthly compensation base increases, the amount of compensation needed to qualify for benefits also increases.

Example

Benefit Year Beginning July 1, 2011

Earnings Needed in Base Year—$3,325.00 in 2010 (2 1/2 x $1,330.00 = $3 325 00) If 2010 was your first year of railroad work you must also have rail road service in 5 months in 2010

In the example, $1,330.00 is the monthly compensation base for base year 2010. The monthly compensation base for base year 2011 is $1,330.00. Contact your local RRB field office if you need information about the monthly compensation base for other years.

Amount and Duration of Benefits

Waiting Period

To satisfy a waiting period requirement, no benefits are payable for your first 7 days of unemployment in your first claim in a period of continuing unemployment, unless you have already served a waiting period in the benefit year. Benefits are payable for each remaining day of unemployment in your first claim. For example, if you claim all 14 days in your first claim, you will be paid benefits for 7 days. If you are eligible and your claims are continuous from one benefit year to another you generally will serve only one waiting period in your period of continuing unemployment.

A period of continuing unemployment means a period of time for which you file claims for unemployment benefits where (1) each claim has 5 or more valid days of unemployment and (2) each claim begins within 15 days after the previous claim ends. For example, claims for the 14-day periods beginning June 17 and July 15 are in the same period of continuous unemployment. The second claim starts only a 15 days after the June 30, the last day of the claim period beginning June 17. So benefits are payable for days over 4 in the claim period beginning July 15. If the second claim period began July 16 however a 7-day waiting period would apply because that claim would start the first period of continuing unemployment in the new benefit year.

If you have at least 5 6, or 7 days of unemployment in a 14-day period, you should file a claim for benefits. Even though no benefits would be payable if the claim is your first claim in the benefit year, your claim must be filed in order to satisfy the waiting period requirement. After your first claim, benefits will be paid for all days over 4 for other claims in the benefit year.

Normal Benefits

You can receive normal benefits for as many as 130 days (26 weeks) in a benefit year but your benefits cannot be more than your base year wages counting not more than a prescribed amount for any month. Benefit rights are exhausted when a benefit year ends (normally June 30) or earlier if benefit payments equal base year creditable earnings.

Example

For purposes of determining maximum normal benefits payable in the general benefit year beginning July 1, 2011, monthly earnings of up to $1 718.00 are counted for months in base year 2010. For base year 2012, the monthly compensation base for maximum benefits is $1 763 00.

Extended Benefits

If you have 10 or more years of service and exhaust your normal unemployment benefits, you may be eligible to receive extended benefits for up to 65 days (7 consecutive 14-day claim periods having 10 days payable in each). Also, if you are not qualified for benefits in the current benefit year but received normal benefits in the previous year, you may still be eligible for extended benefits.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been working with Kelly Lagrow for over 2 years. She, as you know, was originally hired to be my personal care coordinator, then graduated to a nurse care coordinator and now is acting clinical aide.

I have always known her to pay close attention to details. It is these details that make a difference between good patient outcomes and not good patient outcomes. Not everyone pays attention to these details but Kelly does. I've noticed that as acting clinical aide she has the ability to coordinate many activities and tasks efficiently, and I like her ability to care about her clients or patients.

We interact frequently with regards to coordinating care between my services and those provided by outside agencies. She also coordinated care frequently between patients who have been admitted to Massena Hospital and me. Her nurse and clinical background have been the adult group home. She is able to provide me with pertinent information regarding my patients' progress and needs.

In addition she is very pleasant and easy to work with. She is also very enthusiastic, honest and hard working. My staff and I have found caring for patients in Kelly's care under her leadership and direction to be rewarding and easy. These patients can be very challenging and require extra attention and which without a competent and reliable staff such as Kelly these demands, honestly, would be too excessive for me and my staff.

She is well-liked in general in the community and I have no hesitation in recommending her for any position she seeks as she has been very helpful in my practice. I have no reservations regarding her character.

Sincerely,

John S. Turnure, MD

HP Fax Products - Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax function using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the directions below.

NOTE:

Be sure that your phone account is not Caller ID blocked by your telephone company prior to attempting to send and receive a fax. Providing *82 before dialing the toll free number will unblock the Caller ID if using feature in most areas. Other phone company services can prevent you from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or fax privacy features.

NOTE:

Whenever troubleshooting a fax issue, it is good practice to set the Automatic Reports option to Every Error option when making a test fax. This way, even if the test fax fails, an error code will be generated that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available in different places on different products, consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page black and white test fax to 1-888-hpfaxme (1-888-473-2963).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Fax Test Service, we will generate a return fax to you within five minutes confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE:

The most common cause of failure is that the fax number set in the Fax Header on the machine does not match the number of the phone line connected to the fax. Also, ensure that the fax header contains the full 10-digit telephone number of the fax machine, including the area code.

For more information or assistance, click Contact HP at the top of this page.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

CALIBRATE THE ACCELEROMETER!

Before doing the accelerometer calibration please make sure that the propellers motors and X4 body are in good condition with the battery fully charged. Ensure that the battery and the cables are inserted into the battery compartment correctly. (See the picture on P8 5.1.4 in the manual) Please don't move any other joystick or trim before matching the code,please enter into expert mode to do this calibration

1. After turning on the TX and X4 and they bind, set the aileron and elevator trim to the middle and the LCD display 50

(MODE 1) (MODE 2)

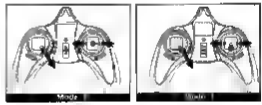
2. Hold the throttle stick to the full down position and hold the rudder stick to the lower right position (see the picture). Then move the aileron stick quickly left-right-left-right until the two X4 head lights blink. The blinking of the lights signal a successful recalibration. This calibration will fix any drifting off in a random direction when doing level yaw turns.



3. If the X4 still drifts to one side, you can set it on a level surface and shim the side that it drifts to with a few sheets of paper (the number of sheets will vary depending on the amount of drift), so it can calibrate the accelerometers with a level offset angle. (See the picture on P20 FAQ13 in the manual.)

TRANSMITTER STICK CALIBRATION

Mode 2: Put the two sticks to the upper left position and hold, then power on the transmitter. Then rotate both sticks a couple of times in full circles. Then hold down any trim until the LED on the TX blinks red, signaling a successful calibration. (See the picture below.)

Mode 1: Put the left stick to the upper left position and the right stick to the upper right position and hold, then power on the transmitter. Rotate both sticks a couple of times in full circles. Then hold down any trim until the LED on the TX blinks red, signaling a successful calibration. (See below.)

Ash Trees Threatened

Stop the spread of the Emerald Ash Borer by not moving firewood or other types of wood from your local area. This includes trees, nursery stock, pruned branches, logs and forest products with bark attached.

THE EMERALD ASH BORER (EAB) is a highly destructive beetle that was found in Richmond Hill in 2011. Although EAB does not pose a risk to human health, it has already killed a large number of ash trees in Ontario and continues to pose a major threat to urban trees and forested areas.

It is illegal to move firewood or products made of ash wood outside of the infested area as the insect could be carried to uninfested areas.

Residents who suspect they have an infested ash tree on their private property should call the Canadian Food Inspection Agency at 1 866 463 6017.

Residents who believe a tree on municipal property is infested should call Access Richmond Hill at 905 771 8800 to report it.

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

Apple Trade-In Program

Trade [illegible] equipment [illegible] any manufacturer and apply [illegible] new products.

Sometimes you need to dispose of existing systems to make room for new equipment. And finding funds to pay for these new purchases from ever tightening budgets can be a challenge.

With Apple's trade-in program, we'll not only help you remove old products, but we'll also help you recover any remaining value to help offset the cost of a new purchase. Apple in conjunction with its third-party vendor also removes data and provides a disposition report for each system with residual value to facilitate your asset management.

Our Promise

- We maintain your privacy.
- We make technology disposal easy for you.
- We guard against harmful working conditions.
- We protect the environment by recycling components and materials.
- We don't sidestep these responsibilities by exporting materials to another country

Benefits

- Leveraging the Apple Trade-In Program allows you to recover value from your existing equipment, it also ensures that your retired equipment will be disposed of in the most environmentally sound manner.
- Data on all hard drives to be resold is overwritten three times and can meet.
- All recycled hard drives are ground into confetti-size pieces.
- Customers receive a certificate of destruction for each lot recycled through the program.
- All asset tags and other identifying information are removed prior to disposition.
- No waste from Apple's U.S. recycling program is shipped outside North America.
- Equipment in good working order can be traded in for credit toward Apple equipment or for a check.

Please complete the Trade-In Evaluation Worksheet at your earliest convenience. For more information and questions, please partner with your local Apple Store Business Team.

Intro

To start using the Technique you only need some simple tools:

- A Kitchen Timer (Pomodoro means Tomato)
- A Pencil
- A To Do Sheet
- An Activity Inventory Sheet
- A Records Sheet

You can download and print sheets' templates from Pomodoro Technique's web site.

Basics

Put all the activities you have to accomplish on the Activity Inventory Sheet. At the beginning of each day select the tasks you need to complete and copy them on the To Do Sheet.

Start working:

- Choose the topmost task from the list
- Set the Pomodoro to 25 min. size
- Work on it the Pomodoro's rings
- Mark this task with an x on the To Do Sheet
- Take a short break (3–5 minutes)

Keep on working, Pomodoro after Pomodoro until the task is found is finished, then cross it out on the To Do Sheet.

Every 4 Pomodoros take a longer break. (15–20 minutes).

Rules & Tips

- A Pomodoro is Indivisible
- If a task takes more than 5–7 Pomodoros, break it down.
- If a task less than one pomodoro add it up, and combine it with another task.
- Once a Pomodoro begins, it has to ring.
- The next pomodoro will go better
- The Pomodoro Technique shouldn't be used for activities you do in your free time. Enjoy free time!

Cheat Sheet

What is it?

The Pomodoro Technique is a time management method that can be used for any kind of task. For many people, time is an enemy. The anxiety triggered by "the ticking clock" especially when a deadline is involved leads to ineffective work and study habits which in turn lead to procrastination.

The aim of the Pomodoro Technique is to use time as a valuable ally in accomplishing what we want to do in the way we want to do it and to enable unto continual improvement in the way we work or study.

The Goals

The Pomodoro Technique will provide a simple tool/process for improving productivity (your own and that of your team members) which is able to do the following:

- Alleviate anxiety linked to becoming
- Enhance focus and concentration by cutting down on interruptions
- Increase awareness of your decisions
- Boost motivation and keep it constant
- Reduce the procrastination to achieve your goals
- Refine helpful quantitative process, both qualitative and quantitative terms
- Improve your work or study process
- Strengthen your determination to keep on applying yourself in the face of complex situations

Interruptions

Once started using the Pomodoro Technique never options can become a real problem.

Internal interruptions are the moments that come from you mind up and go wander on or think or look up some thing on the Internet like that.

Make those interruptions clearly visible. Every time you feel a possible interruption coming on, put an interruption (!) on the sheet where you record your Pomodoros.

Then do one of the following.

- Write down the new activity on the To Do Sheet under Unplanned & Urgent if you think it's important and must be put off.
- Write it down in the Activity Inventory Sheet marking it with an "U" (unplanned) and a deadline if need be.
- Increase your determination and finish the current Pomodoro. Once you've marked down the appropriate continue working on this given task till the Pomodoro rings.

People who work in social environments have to deal with external interruptions: a colleague asks you how to complete a report, an email appears constantly beeps every time a new message comes in. A 25 minute or 2-hour delay (that Pomodoros) is almost always possible for everyday work are commonly considered urgent.

Make those interruptions clearly visible. Every time someone or society rings to interrupt a Pomodoro, put a dash (-) on the sheet where you record your Pomodoros, apply the failure Negotiate and Call Strategy.

Then apply care of the rules exposed above for internal interruptions.

Thanks you for considering us for the landscaping on your new divisional headquarters We are pleased to submit our proposal herewith for the concept phase as agreed earlier

Since your available area is somewhat limited we suggest a modular layout This concept emphasizes space conservation and yet still provides for a modern pleasing atmosphere

Enclosed are two floor plans The first one will allow you to keep your present furniture. The second was designed with the intention that our new space-saving modules be used Notice that the latter will provide for more spacious accommodations and/or room for additional personnel. Also included are the specification sheets on these products

After you have had a chance to study our ideas, I would like to set up a meeting during October to discuss any further refinements I will have my secretary make the arrangements Please call me in the interim if you have any questions

⚠Important 911 information

Ooma wants to make sure that you are aware of important differences in the way 911 service operates with Ooma when compared with traditional telephone service. Here's what you need to keep in mind:

Differences between traditional 911 service and Ooma 911

Be advised that Ooma 911 service is less reliable than traditional 911 service. Some regions do not support enhanced 911 service and your emergency call may be routed to an emergency response center which does not keep your contact information on file.

Be prepared during any service interruption.

Ooma phone service depends not only on your continued subscription (and payment) for the service, but also on Internet connectivity and power to function. In the event of power, network, or Internet outages (including congestion), or if your service is disconnected or suspended due to non-payment, you may experience a failure, disruption or delay in your 911 service. We recommend that you keep an alternative phone service (such as a cellular telephone) handy to increase the reliability of your access to emergency services during any service interruption.

Do not disconnect.

Until you are told to do so by an emergency dispatcher, do not disconnect your 911 call. If you are inadvertantly disconnected, call back immediately.

Keep your service address up to date.

Ooma will attempt to provide the emergency operator with your service address, so please ensure that your information on file with us is always accurate and updated. You may update your address online or by calling customer support at 1-888-711-6662. If you do not do this (for example, if you are unable to speak during a 911 call), the emergency operator may assume that you are calling from the last registered address.

Inform other users

You must notify members of your household and other potential users of your Ooma phone service of the nature and limitations of 911 emergency calls.

Limitations of Liability.

Ooma's terms of service limit and disclaim liability related to Ooma 911 service, so please read these carefully.

For a complete description of our Ooma 911 service, please see Ooma's terms of service at www.ooma.com/911.

Please leave this notice next to your phone.

Re. Faxing -what machines work?

Dby FX Bell » Wed Feb 01, 2012 9:09 pm

For anyone struggling with a Samsung SCX4521F with a Telco-ty *98 rather than *99
I was having no luck with *99 as a dialing prefix, but then I read that someone left their ECM turned on. I tried this and it sent extremely slow, but several minutes later it showed up on Fax Toy. Then I tried a second and it failed. Re-tried and it failed again. Turned ECM off again, but as suggested by many I set the dialing prefix to *98. Success! Three faxes in a row and it worked every time. In fact, it works so well that faxes send in about 10-15 seconds and 20 seconds later they appear on Fax Toy.

For those of you with the Samsung SCX-4521F you will find both the setting for the Dialing Prefix (so it will dial *98 automatically for you-before the fax number you enter) and the ECM on/off toggle under "7 Advance Fax" in the setup menu.

Here's some background info on what *98 does.

I was having no luck with *99 as a dialing prefix, but then I read that someone left their ECM turned on. I tried this and it sent extremely slow, but several minutes later it showed up on Fax Toy. Then I tried a second and it failed. Re-tried and it failed again. Turned ECM off again, but as suggested by many I set the dialing prefix to *98. Success! Three faxes in a row and it worked every time. In fact it works so well that faxes send in about 10-15 seconds and 20 seconds later they appear on Fax Toy.

For those of you with the Samsung SCX-4521F you will find both the setting for the Dialing Prefix (so it will dial *98 automatically for you-before the fax number you enter) and the ECM on/off toggle under "7 Advance Fax" in the setup menu.

Here's some background info on what *98 does.

RE:

Dear Anne

I am writing you in response to your letter to me dated August 22 2012 In your correspondence you requested a SHORT TERM DISABILITY STATUS UPDATE FORM, which I faxed to you on 8/28 12 The other documentation requested was Medical records from all treating providers from 8/17/12 to present I have obtained all documentation available from both the Hospital and attending Physician I have attached to this letter/fax those documents As of the date of this letter there are no other documents available concerning this claim from any of the medical providers providing service to me in regards to this claim I have personally devoted my time and efforts to visit each of these facilities to request and obtain all documents on record that pertain to this claim. I have scheduled, another follow up appointment on 9/5/12 in which I will submit to you another Physicians Status Update form for my visit I hope this is all that is needed so that we can conclude my evaluation for disability benefits through the time period for which I will be disabled and not able to work (10/15/12). It has been a disappointment to me that you have made this so difficult and trying to get all these items Had I been completely incapacitated, I would have been in serious trouble as far as being able to provide you with these documents

Sincerely,

Enclosure

Dear Pete,

Permit me to introduce you to the facility of facsimile transmission.

In facsimile a photocell is caused to perform a raster scan over the subject copy. The variations of print density on the document cause the photocell to generate an analogous electrical video signal. This signal is used to modulate a carrier, which is transmitted to a remote destination over a radio or cable communications link.

At the remote terminal, demodulation reconstructs the video signal, which is used to modulate the density of print produced by a printing device. This device is scanning in a raster scan synchronised with that at the transmitting terminal. As a result, a facsimile copy of the subject document is produced.

Probably you have uses for this facility in your organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Phil.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

BODY B·U·L·E·T·I·N CANADA

July 2018

Your APPETITE and EXERCISE

An exercise workout can leave you feeling hungry, or not

It depends on multiple factors, including your body fat percentage, fitness level and the length and intensity of your workout. Individual responses to exercise are variable and hard to predict. Here are some clues:

The role of appetite hormones:

When you exercise, your hunger hormone (ghrelin) may decrease, while levels of the hunger-suppressing hormone (leptin) increase — more so when you exercise vigorously (running) than moderately (brisk walking). This effect is greater the longer you exercise. But once your body temperature returns to normal after exercise your hunger will likely kick in.

Fuel up before your workout.

It can provide energy needed to exercise and may reduce your post-exercise hunger. What you eat depends on the intensity and length of your activity. Experts recommend eating a small balanced meal before long, strenuous exercise. For light exercise, such as walking, a snack of fruits or vegetables may suffice.

Nourish after vigorous exercise.

To help your muscles recover and to replace their glycogen supply (energy), eat a meal or snack that contains both carbohydrates (e.g., fruits and vegetables) and lean protein within 1 to 3 hours before your workout, depending on how comfortable you feel. After exercise, eat within 20 minutes. If you tend to feel famished after exercise, drink a glass of water before your meal and eat slowly — it may help suppress overeating.

Achievement is largely the product of steadily raising one's levels of aspiration and expectation. Jack Nicklaus

1 July 28 is World Hepatitis Day. Hepatitis viruses cause inflammation of the liver that leads to serious, sometimes chronic illness. There are 5 primary forms of hepatitis. A and E are typically caused by ingesting contaminated food or water. B, C and D usually result from contact with infected blood and other body fluids. Ask your health care provider if you need the A or B vaccination (there are no vaccines for the other types). Learn the ABCs of hepatitis at worldhepatitisday.org.

2 Sunscreen reminder: Protect your skin. Excessive sunlight exposes your skin to damaging ultraviolet (UV) radiation, causing photoaging (premature wrinkles and sagging) and raising the risk for basal and squamous cell skin cancers and melanomas. Don't skimp on sun protection during summer fun. Use broad-spectrum sunscreen (for UVA and UVB rays) with a sun protection factor (SPF) of at least 30 every day as directed to reduce skin damage and help prevent skin cancer.

3 Bee and wasp stings can hurt and cause serious allergic reactions in some people. Our buzzy little friends aren't interested in us, they sting to protect themselves or their hives. Things that attract them: food, fragrances, scented products, open trash cans and sweet beverages (watch that they don't fall into your soda can). If a bee lands close by, be still and don't swat, which may prompt stinging. Try blowing very softly on the bee to make it move away.

How Cao I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1 888-877-4655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

What's new for 2013?

We list the major changes below, including income tax changes that have been announced but were not law at the time of printing. If they become law as proposed, they will be effective for 2013 or as of the dates given. For more information about these and other changes, see the areas outlined in colour in this guide.

Pooled registered pension plan (PRPP) (lines 115, 208, and 209) – The PRPP is a new retirement savings option for individuals, including those who are self-employed. For more information, see pages 14, 22, and 23. For more information about the PRPP, go to www.cra-arc.gc.ca/prpp.

Other income (line 130) – Enter on line 130 amounts (grants) paid to you as a result of taking time away from work to cope with the death or disappearance of your child because of an offence or probable offence under the Criminal Code.

Adoption expenses (line 313) – For adoptions finalized in 2013 and subsequent years, the adoption period has been extended. For more information, see page 41.

Donations and gifts (line 349) – For the 2013 to 2017 years, you may be able to claim a first-time donor's super credit. For more information, see page 48.

Investment tax credit (line 412) – Eligibility for the mineral exploration tax credit has been extended to flow-through share agreements entered into before April 1, 2014. For more information about investment tax credits, see page 50.

Tax related to the non-purchase of replacement shares in a Quebec labour-sponsored fund (line 418) – You may have to pay a special tax if you redeemed your shares from a Quebec labour-sponsored fund to participate in the Home Buyers' Plan (HBP) or the Lifelong Learning Plan (LLP), but did not purchase replacement shares within the prescribed time. For more information, see page 51.

Overseas employment tax credit (line 426) – From 2013 to 2016, the overseas employment tax credit will be phased out. It will be eliminated for 2016 and subsequent years. For more information, see Form T626, Overseas Employment Tax Credit.

Foreign property – Under certain circumstances, the reassessment period for a return has been extended. For more information, see page 10.

Retired seniors, look for the ▼ symbol

If you are a retired senior with a straightforward tax situation, that is, you receive the most common types of pension income, and are eligible for certain deductions and credits, follow the steps below.

1. Read the information that applies to you on pages 9 to 11.
2. Complete your return by following the instructions for the lines identified by the ▼ symbol in this guide and in the forms book. The information for these lines may apply to you.
3. You may have received income or be able to claim deductions or credits that are not identified with the ▼ symbol. If this is the case, read the information for that particular type of income, deduction, or credit in this guide or in the forms book.

Ngày Xưa ngày Xưa, có hai anh em cha mẹ mất sớm. Khi người anh lấy vợ, người anh không muốn ở chung với em nữa, liền quyết định chia gia tài. Người anh tham lam chiếm hết cả nhà cửa ruộng vườn, trâu bò của cha mẹ để lại, chỉ cho người em một thửa ruộng nhỏ và mảnh vườn, trong đó có cây khế ngọt. Người em không chút phàn nàn, ngày chăm bón cho cây khế và cây thuế, chắc mướn nhổ, thôi.

Năm ấy, cây khế trong vườn nhà người em bỗng sai quả lạ thường, cành nào cũng trĩu quả ngọt, vàng ruộm. Người em nhìn cây khế mà lòng khấp khởi, mừng thầm tính chuyện bán khế lấy tiền đong gạo.

Một hôm, có con chim Phượng Hoàng từ đâu bay đến mổ khế ăn. Thấy thế, người em vác gậy đuổi chim đi nơi khác. Nào chim? Ta chỉ có duy nhất một cây khế này, để ta đã khó nhọc chăm sóc đến ngày hái quả. Nay nếu chim ăn hết ta chẳng có gì để bán mưu sống. Vậy nên chim muốn ăn thì mang trả lại cho ta một thứ gì có giá.

Chim vâng ăn xin đáp ân nhân, rồi cúc cùng may tới ba sang, mang theo mười tương. Người em nghe chim nói vậy, cũng đành để chim ăn thấy hôm sau, chim lại đến ăn khế. Ăn xong chim bảo người em cầm túi ba sang đi lấy vàng chim bay mất, bay mãi qua núi cao, qua biển rộng, qua mười cánh rừng xuống một hòn đảo đầy vàng bạc, châu báu. Người em đi khắp đảo mà ngắm thỏa thích rồi lấy vàng đầy ắp túi ba sang. Chim Phượng Hoàng bảo lấy thêm, người em cũng không lấy xong xuôi, người em trở về nhà.

As I was walking up the stair
I met a man who wasn't there
He wasn't there again today
Oh how I wish he'd go away

When I came home last night at three
The man was waiting there for me
But when I looked around the hall
I couldn't see him there at all!
Go away, go away, don't you come back any more!
Go away, go away, and please don't slam the door

Last night I saw upon the stair
A little man who wasn't there
He wasn't there again today
Oh how I wish he'd go away

For In Vitro Diagnostic Use
Caution: Federal law restricts this device to sale by or on the order of a physician.
Agendia Inc (#05D1069250) is certified under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (CLIA) as qualified to perform high-complexity clinical testing. MammaPrint is an aid in estimating the prognosis of patients diagnosed with breast cancer. Decisions regarding care and treatment should not be based on a single test such as MammaPrint. Rather decisions on care and treatment should be based on the independent medical judgment of the treating physician taking into consideration all available information concerning the patient's condition, including other pathological tests, in accordance with the standard of care in a given community. MammaPrint was developed using archived fresh frozen node negative adult breast cancers. Patients in Europe, patients who have received neoadjuvant therapy, or patients with tumors larger than 5 cm were excluded. MammaPrint is a gene expression profile. The metastasis free survival data is from an independent external patient group in Europe.

This test was performed at Agendia's Irvine, California laboratory.

/r/bodyweightfitness Recommended Routine

Warmup

Dynamic Stretches. 5-10 reps each

- Wall Extensions
- Band Dislocates
- Cat Camels
- Scapular Shrugs
- Full Body Circles
- Front Leg Swings
- Side Leg Swings

Bodyline Work. 10-60s hold each

- Plank
- Side Plank
- Reverse Plank
- Hollow Hold
- Arch Hold

Skill Work

Set a timer and go practice your support and your handstand, resting as necessary. When time's up, you're done.

Handstand: 5-10 minutes

- Level 1: Wall Plank
- Level 2: Wall Handstand
- Level 3: Freestanding Handstand

Support. 2-3 minutes

- Level 1: Parallel Bar Support
- Level 2: Ring Support
- Level 3: Rings Turned Out Support

Strength Work

For each pair do 1 set of the first exercise, then rest 90 seconds, then 1 set of the second exercise. Rest 90 seconds then repeat another 2 times for a total of 3 sets of each exercise. Rest for 90 seconds to 3 minutes between pairs.

All exercises are to be done in a 10x0 tempo. 1 second down, no pause at the bottom, explode up and no pause at the top. When "exploding up" it's the intent that matters. If the actual movement is slow, that doesn't matter. Just don't artificially slow it down.

Pair 1 If you can't do diamond pushups and horizontal rows yet simply skip these for now.

Pullup: 3x 5-8 reps

- Level 1: Pullup Negative
- Level 2: Pullup

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Form 8655 is used to authorize a reporting agent to:

- Sign and file certain returns,
- Make deposits and payments for certain returns,
- Receive reporting copies of tax information, notices, and other written and/or electronic communication regarding any authority granted, and
- Provide IRS with information to aid in making initial determinations required in the authority granted on Form 8655.

Authority Granted

Once Form 8655 is signed any authority granted is effective beginning with the period indicated on lines 15 or 16 and continues indefinitely unless revoked by the taxpayer or reporting agent. No authorization or authority granted for periods prior to the reporting indicated on Form 8655.

Where authority is granted for any form, it is also effective for named forms such as the corresponding non-English language form, amended return, Form 941 X, 941 SS/PR, 943-X, 944-X/PR, 945-X, or CT 100 taxpayer identification or deposit coupon, if limited to the named unless on lines 9 and 14, Form 8655 can be used to perform authorization for Form 944-SP using the entry needed for Form 944. The form also can be used to authorize a reporting agent to make transfers and payments for other persons to the Form 1120 series, such as Form 1120-C, using the entry space for Form 1120 on line 16.

Disclosure authority limited on line 17a is effective on the date Form 8655 is signed by the taxpayer. Any authority granted on Form 8655 does not revoke and has no effect on any reporting granted on Forms 2848 or 8821 or any third-party designee disclosure authority.

Where To File

Send Form 8655 to:

Internal Revenue Service
Ogden, UT 84404

You may fax Form 8655 to the IRS. The number is 801-620-6161.

Additional Information

Additional information concerning reporting agent authorizations may be found in:

- Pub. 1474, Technical Specifications Guide for Reporting Agent Testfiles Filer and Federal Tax Deposits.
- Rev. Proc. 2007-35, You can find Rev. Proc. 2007-35 on page 1442 of Internal Revenue Bulletin 2007-25 at www.irs.gov/pub/irs-irbs/irb07-25.pdf.

Substitute Form 8655

If you want to prepare and use a substitute Form 8655, see Pub. 1167 General Rules and Specifications for Substitute Forms and Schedules. If your substitute Form 8655 is approved, the form language number must be printed in the lower left margin of each substitute Form 8655 you file with the IRS.

Revoking an Authorization

If you have a valid Form 8655 on file with the IRS, the filing of a new Form 8655 revokes the responsibility of the prior reporting agent beginning with the period identified on the new Form 8655. However, the prior reporting agent is still an disclosure reporting agent and retains any previously granted disclosure reporting for the periods prior to the beginning period of the new reporting agent's authorization unless specifically revoked.

If the taxpayer wishes to revoke an existing authorization, send a copy of the previously executed Form 8655 to the IRS at the location listed under Where To File, section. Re-sign the copy to the Form 8655 unless the original signature. Write "REVOKE" across the top of the form. If you do not have a copy of the authorization you want to revoke, send a statement to the IRS. The statement of revocation must indicate that the authority of the reporting agent is revoked and must be signed by the taxpayer. Also, list the name and address of each reporting agent unless reporting is revoked.

Withdrawing from reporting authority. A reporting agent can withdraw from authority by filing a statement with the IRS either on paper or using a unless process. The statement must be signed by the reporting agent (if filed on paper) and identify the name and address of the taxpayer and authorization(s) from which the reporting agent is withdrawing. For information on the fax/all process, see Pub. 1474.

Marsha's Terrible Job Interview

Marsha had a job interview with the Sunshine Biscuit Company last Monday. Her appointment with the interviewer was for 10:00 am. She had forgotten to set her alarm clock, so she woke up at 9:30 am and got to the interview an hour late, at 11:00 am.

Because she woke up so late, she didn't have much time to get ready. She took a quick shower and put on the first dress that she found in her closet. It was a very short dress that showed a little too much, the kind of dress a woman wears when she's trying to attract a boyfriend at a cocktail party. She also put on a lot of very cheap perfume, the kind you can smell down the street.

She left the house without eating breakfast and she ran to the bus stop. The bus was late in coming, but she didn't want to spend the money on a taxi. When she finally got to the Sunshine Biscuit company, she ran into the building and ran into the interviewing office. She ran up to the secretary's desk and screamed, "I'm here! My bus was late!" The secretary was a bit surprised, but asked her who she was and what time her appointment was for. Marsha answered, "I'm Marsha and my interview is for right now." Of course, it was already 11:00 am and her interview had been scheduled for an hour earlier.

The secretary called the interviewer, Mr. Green, on the intercom and he told her to send Marsha in.

Marsha was chewing gum as she entered the office. She took a seat without saying anything to Mr. Green. Mr. Green was slightly surprised to see Marsha act so boldly, even though she was an hour late. He introduced himself and asked how she was. She said that she was feeling lousy and that the public transportation in the town was awful. He asked her what kind of position she was looking for, and if she had a resume. She said that she had no resume because she didn't have time to write one. She also had no idea of what kind of job she wanted; she just wanted one that paid well. He asked her if she had any questions for him, and she asked him if she could have Wednesday afternoons off so that she could see her psychiatrist. She also asked him if the company gave at least a two-week vacation. He asked her what skills she had and she answered that she could type, but that she couldn't take a typing test because tests made her nervous.

Mr. Green thanked Marsha for coming, and she asked, "Do I get a job or not?" He said that he would call her if there was an opening, and she said, "Well, hurry please, because I'm broke and I can't pay the rent."

ONCE upon a time there was a poor old woman who lived in a little cottage with her only son Jack.

Jack was a giddy, thoughtless boy, but very kind-hearted and affectionate. They had been a hard winter, and first the poor woman had suffered from cold and hunger, and then she was so ill that she was obliged to keep in bed.

The children say that there was no means of keeping Jack quiet except by giving him a occupation but by setting her mind at ease by making him do something. Jack replied to all her questions that he was determined to do, and that he would not be long away.

Jack then set off to the market to sell the cow very early in the morning. As he was driving her along, he met a butcher, who had some very fine sheep in his hand. Jack stopped to look at them, and the butcher told him how much money they would bring, and pressed him to buy one. At last he consented, and the butcher took the cow, and gave him in exchange a sheep.

When Jack brought it home to his mother instead of the money she expected for her nice cow, she was very vexed and cried many tears, scolding Jack for his folly. He was very sorry, and replied that as he knew he would be very sadly that night, Jack did hope she would forgive him.

As they had no food in the house, they were obliged to go supperless to bed.

At last they thought that it was time to get up, and as they had no breakfast, they were very hungry indeed. Jack was about to begin to cry, when he remembered that he had left the sheep in the garden, and that he might get something to eat.

That day they had very little dinner, and were quite tired, knowing that for the next day it was useless to work, and Jack was glad to hear that he was not to be sent to bed supperless.

But he was a great deal more surprised when he awoke in the morning to find that the beans had grown up in the night as well as Jack, and up to the window of the cottage. And it appeared as if they were going to climb up quite to the sky.

So Jack thought that he would try and climb up them, and see where they led to.

Well, having thought of the matter, he did not think very long before he began to climb up the beanstalk, which was quite as easy as climbing up a ladder. When he had climbed for some time, he found himself at last on the top of the beanstalk.

WONDERFUL GROWTH OF THE BEANSTALK

After Jack had left his mother and they both gained a silent wonder as the beanstalk which was not only of great height, but went quite straight, no bend or crack's weight.

I suppose when beans, said Jack as his mother. If ever I live death as old as the

His mother wished it not to worry, as up the strange to see, but Jack covered her to give her consent to the moment for he was rather there was to something wonderful. In the beanstalk so attack she yielded to Jack wishes.

Jack instantly began to climb, and went up and up and up, for he knew like knew that everything he has left behind below the cottage, the village, and even the tall church-steeple—looked quite little, and still he could not see the top of the beanstalk.

Jack felt a little tired, and thought that a rest would be a good idea, but he was a very determined boy. And he knew that the way to succeed in anything was to stick to it, so after resting for a moment he started again.

After climbing higher and higher, till he grew afraid to look down for fear he should be giddy, Jack at last reached the top of the beanstalk, and found himself in a beautiful country, finely wooded, with beautiful meadows covered with sheep. A splendid road ran through the pastures not far from the place where he had got off the beanstalk a place a fine stream, across

Jack wondering very much that he had never heard of or seen this country, but was determined to explore it, the subject. Having that it was all much as started from the village by the pathway that led on which I stood up the Queen's another road.

While Jack was standing looking at the castle, a very strange looking woman came out of the wood and advanced towards him.

Soil Sampling Pastures

John Lory and Steve Cromley
Division of Plant Sciences and Commercial Agriculture Program

Collecting a representative soil sample is an important step in developing a nutrient plan for your farm. The goals of your soil sampling plan should be to

- Identify manageable sized fields with similar characteristics.
- Accurately and cost-effectively determine the nutrient status of those fields.

Highly variable soil fertility levels across a field can make it difficult to collect a good soil sample. With planning, representative soil samples can be obtained from your pasture. Careful, comprehensive soil sampling pays dividends in smarter management decisions and efficient use of fertilizer nutrients.

How should I divide my pastures?

When creating a soil-sampling plan for fields and farms, the objective is to divide fields into areas that you expect to have similar characteristics or that you are likely to manage differently than other parts of the pasture. Typically sampling areas should not exceed 20 acres and can be much smaller. In management-intensive grazing systems, frequently the best strategy is to sample each paddock separately.

Pastures have many sources of variability.

- Animal activities and habits are a huge source of variation in pastures.
  - Areas around winter feeders, shade trees and water sources have higher soil test levels.
  - Manure piles and urine spots have elevated nutrients.
- Natural features such as soil type and topography are important sources in variability, particularly in low-testing and unfertilized fields.
- Human activities can overwhelm natural sources of variability in a field.
  - Nutrient hot spots are often found near old feeding areas and homesteads.
  - Differences in fertilizer patterns can create differences in soil test levels. An indicator of different fertilizer histories can be old or existing fence lines.

- There is often a band of elevated pH within 150 feet of a gravel road caused by drifting dust from the crushed limestone road surface.

When sampling a paddock or field, avoid sampling in areas that are unrepresentative of the field (Figure 1). Avoid taking cores near shade trees, water sources and winter feeding areas. If you want to know soil test levels in these areas, sample them separately.

How to collect a soil sample

Your objective is to collect 15 to 20 cores from the area to be sampled (Figure 1). You need to collect more cores per field in a pasture than in a row-crop field because there typically is much more variation in a pasture from manure piles and urine spots.

The best approach is to travel across the entire area to be sampled in a zigzag pattern, randomly selecting spots to take a core (Figure 1). Sampling depth is 6 to 7 inches for most objectives in pastures (Figure 2). Do not take too shallow a sample as this will overestimate the soil fertility level in your pasture.

Care labels provide helpful information that can save you time and money.

Cleanse, Tumble clothes means longer wearing apparel. And clothes that are bleachable are easier to get clean.

When a care label doesn't mention bleach or says "Bleach when needed" it means it is safe to use bleach liquid bleach. When the label says "non-chlorine bleach when needed" use a non-chlorine (colorsafe) bleach like Clorox 2®

Machine clothes and be intimidated, follow the easy directions on bleach container labels to feel fabrics in circumstances.

FAQs & Troubleshooting

Date: 04/05/2014 ID: faq00002896_018

I'm using MagicJack and am having problems sending or receiving faxes.

MagicJack is a Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) phone service that you can use with your high-speed Internet connection.

Brother does not support the use of its fax machines and Multifunction Centers with MagicJack.

For information about connecting your Brother machine to MagicJack, click here.

If you want to use your Brother machine to send and receive faxes over MagicJack, we recommend you contact MagicJack and ask them which Brother model they recommend for faxing.

Set the Brother machine's speed to their recommendation by following these steps:

1. Press [redacted] (Settings).
2. Press the Up or Down arrow key to display Initial Setup.
3. Press Initial Setup.
4. Press the Up or Down arrow key to display Compatibility.
5. Press Compatibility.
6. Press the modem speed you want to use.

   You can choose High(For some devices), Normal or Basic (for VoIP).

   - High sets the machine's modem speed at 33,600 bps. (For some devices)
   - Normal sets the machine's modem speed at 14,400 bps.
   - Basic (for VoIP) sets the machine's modem speed at 9,600 bps.

   When you change the compatibility to Basic(for VoIP), your Brother machine's Error Correction Mode (ECM) is turned off when sending or receiving black and white faxes. ECM cannot be used at all for color faxing.

7. Press [redacted] (Menu).

For additional information about using VoIP to send and receive faxes click here.

The Graduate Record Examinations® (GRE®) General Test measures skills that faculty at graduate departments consistently rank as essential to graduate school success. These skills of verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, and critical thinking and analytical writing are foundational skills for applicants to all U.S. graduate programs, regardless of educational or linguistic background or country of origin.

Although the GRE Program has many studies of the predictive validity of the GRE General Test (which are available on the GRE website: www.ets.org/gre), a recent meta-analysis by Kuncel, Ser h Hezlett and Ones (2010) provides additional positive evidence of the validity of the GRE General Test overall and for a host of graduate school success. This meta-analysis is important because previous validity studies were often difficult to conduct for a variety of reasons (e.g., restriction of data, test scores or predictions of success that do not vary greatly across examinees). Combined with the findings from the Kuncel et al meta-analysis (approved on these studies by examining the validity of the GRE General Test for multiple disciplines using multiple measures of success, and by addressing statistical artifacts, such as range restriction.

One strength of the Kuncel et al. research is that this meta-analysis analyzed data from a very large data set including more than 700 independent samples based on a pool of more than 80,000 students. In addition, the study looked at five predictors of success and eight criteria of success. The predictors included the three measures of the GRE General Test (verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning and analytical reasoning), GRE Subject Test scores and undergraduate grade point average (UGPA). The criteria for success are shown in the figure to the left.

Each of these studies can be considered a different dimension of successful performance in graduate school

Results of the Kuncel et al study

Results from this study show that:

1. The GRE General Test is a generally valid predictor of first-year graduate GPA, overall graduate GPA, comprehensive exam scores, publication citation counts and faculty ratings
2. The GRE General Test also correlates positively with degree attainment and research productivity
3. The GRE General Test has better predictive validity than undergraduate grades or letters of recommendation
4. The GRE Subject Tests are better predictors of success than either the GRE General Test or undergraduate GPA

This meta-analysis study is important because these results apply across a range of intended academic majors, across native speakers of English and nonnative speakers of English, across traditional and nontraditional students and across master's and doctoral programs.

Thank you for beta-testing MakeMKV. Please see viewtopic.php?f=5&t=1054 for information about latest version.

The linux release includes full source code for MakeMKV GUI, libmakemkv multiplexer library and libdriveio MMC drive interrogation library. Please use this forum for an up to date download and setup instructions. You need to follow the steps outlined below to compile and install the application and all libraries.
Download both binary and source packages:
http://www.makemkv.com/download/makemkv-bin-1.6.8.tar.gz
http://www.makemkv.com/download/makemkv-oss-1.6.8.tar.gz

Make sure you have all required tools and libraries installed. You'll need GNU compiler and linker and header and library files for following libraries: glibc, openssl-0.9.8, zlib, qt4. You may use the following command to install all prerequisites on debian-based system like ubuntu:
Code:
sudo apt-get install build-essential libc6-dev libssl-dev libgl1-mesa-dev libqt4-dev

Unpack both packages and starting from source package do the following steps for each package:
Code:
make -f makefile.linux
sudo make -f makefile.linux install

The application will be installed as "/usr/bin/makemkv"

Please share your experience in this forum

January 2013

To My Special Partner in the Lord,

Where does this New Year find you, my friend? Are you in need physically? Financially? Spiritually? Are you full of courage and certainty, or are you facing the days ahead troubled by anxiety and plagued with discouragement?

Whatever your circumstances, I have a message for you from the Lord. In the beginning of January, the Lord impressed on me these words from Jeremiah 32:27,

"I am the LORD, the God of all flesh.
Is there anything too hard for Me?"

God Almighty, the Lord of heaven and earth, the creator of all that exists, is reminding you that nothing is too hard for Him!

As I have shared with you before, the Name of God in Hebrew means "He who causes everything to be." Think of His promise to you: "Whoever will call on the Name of 'this One who causes everything to be,' will be saved!"

Do you have heartache? Do you have arthritis, or cancer? Do you have an overwhelming financial need? Call on the name of the LORD, declare His greatness and walk in the blessing He will provide.

We serve a God of the impossible! And He is asking us to believe in Him. He wants you to believe in His all-surpassing greatness and power. Believe in His enormous, unwavering love for you. He is saying to you, "Will you believe Me? Will you please believe Me for all that you need?"

For fifty-one years I have seen the greatness of God's power displayed through His work in the ministry of CBN. As the enclosed memo will document for you, the magnitude of your work increases each year, as you help bring a massive harvest of souls into the kingdom of God.

Think of the impossible things we have seen accomplished through our work together:

Important notes about your benefits

Please keep this statement
You may need it for tax purposes or to claim for other coverage

Want a faster way to get your claims payment and statement?
Use your access ID and password to access the Plan Member Services website to sign up for direct deposit and to receive an e-mail notification as soon as your claim is processed. Your claim payment is automatically deposited into your bank account, and you can view your claim statements online at any time. Use the same access ID and password for instant access to convenient self-service features through our automated phone system - 24/7. This will also ensure faster service if you need to speak to a customer care representative. If you don't have an access ID, visit www.sunlife.ca/groupbenefits and select Register now.

Other coverage
If you are covered under more than one plan, you can claim under both plans. This is called coordinating your benefits. All insurance companies follow these same rules. It's best to make copies of your receipts before you submit a claim. Send the original receipts to the first plan (as explained below) and a copy to the second plan, and keep a copy for your files.

For your expenses: Send your claims to your own benefit plan first. When you receive your claim payment and statement, send a copy of the statement along with copies of your expense receipts to your spouse's plan to claim any unpaid amount.

For your spouse's expenses: Send your spouse's claims to their benefit plan first, then send a copy of their claim statement and expense receipts to your own benefit plan to claim any unpaid amount.

For your children's expenses: The insurance industry uses the "birthday rule" for children's claims. The parent with the birthday falls earliest in the year sends the child(ren)'s claims to their plan first. For example, if you were born in October and your spouse was born in March, your spouse should send the child(ren)'s claims to their plan first. If both parents have the same birthday, claims should be sent first to the plan of the parent whose first name begins with the earlier letter in the alphabet.

If you are a member of more than one benefit plan
submit your claims in the following order (depending on which of these applies):
1. The plan where you are an active full-time employee. (If you are a full-time employee at two jobs, submit your claims first to the plan with the earlier effective date.) then
2. The plan where you are an active part-time employee, then
3. The plan where you are a retiree. (If you are a retiree under two plans, your claims would be paid at 50% and you would need to claim the unpaid balance from the other plan.)

Protect yourself
While the vast majority of claims submitted under benefit plans are valid and accurate, even a small percentage of inaccurate or improper claims can be very costly and that can affect you as a plan member. If you suspect any improper claiming activity under your benefit plan, we encourage you to call Sun Life Financial's toll free confidential line at 1 800 361 6212.

A note about privacy
To protect your privacy, we destroy all receipts and claim forms for group health and dental claims after 6 months. We do keep an electronic record of the claims paid.

EGFR Mutations NOT DETECTED

Method: Target Selector™ by Biocept

The EGFR Mutation assay is a quantitative RealTime PCR based mutant enrichment assay with selective blocking of EGFR wild-type amplification. The amplification products are purified and subject to sequencing to confirm the presence of the EGFR mutation. This assay analyzes for the following EGFR mutations: del 19, L858R and T790M. The assay has a sensitivity >99% and specificity >99% at 0.05% mutant allele frequency.

Supporting Data

Alteration	Result	Mutant Copies detected per ml	Wild-type Copies detected per ml	Percent Mutant Allele
T790M	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA
L858R	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA
Del19	Not Detected	NA	NA	NA

Plasma Volume Used: ml

This Target Selector™ assay analyzes for the presence of Del19 and L858R activating mutations associated with response to targeted EGFR tyrosine kinase inhibitors as well as the T790M point mutation associated with resistance to these therapies.

Hotmail

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Hotmail (official), Microsoft Hotmail, previously Windows Live Hotmail and MSN Hotmail) was a free web-based email service operated by Microsoft as part of Windows Live which was recently replaced by the newer Outlook.com service by Microsoft. Hotmail was one of the first web-based email services.[3] It was founded by Sabeer Bhatia and Jack Smith and launched in July 1996 as "HoTMail".[4] It was acquired by Microsoft in 1997 for an estimated $400 million, and shortly after it was rebranded as "MSN Hotmail". The current version was released in 2011.[5]

Hotmail features unlimited storage, Ajax, and integration with Microsoft's instant messaging (Windows Live Messenger), calendar (Hotmail Calendar), file hosting service (SkyDrive), and contacts platform.[6] As of 2012, Hotmail was the world's second largest web-based email service after Gmail with 360 million users.[1][7] It is available in 36 different languages.[8][9]

Hotmail is developed from Mountain View, California. When Hotmail Corporation was an independent company, it was headquartered in Sunnyvale.[10][11]

On 18 February 2013, Outlook.com (a newer webmail service by Microsoft)[12] deprecated Hotmail.[13] Existing Hotmail customers are scheduled to be upgraded to Outlook.com during 2013.[13]

Title
Can the network printer be setup both wired and wireless at the same time?

Description

Although the printer can be setup in both a wired and wireless network, only one of the connection methods can be used at a time. When the wireless setting is enabled, the wired (Ethernet) setting is disabled. When the wired (Ethernet) setting is enabled, the wireless setting is disabled.

<How to switch between wired and wireless network>
When you disconnect an Ethernet cable from the printer wireless network will be disabled. On the other hand, when the Ethernet cable is connected to the printer wired network is enabled.

If you press the Go button for approx. 10 seconds, the network setting page will be printed out. Then release the Go button. wired network will be enabled in wireless network, even if the Ethernet is still connected.

If you release the Go button in less than 10 seconds, the printer will change to the reprint mode.

When you press the Go button for approx. 10 seconds again, wired network will be disabled.

CancerTYPE ID

Molecular Classification with CancerTYPE ID

FFPE Tissue Processing & Tumor Enrichment

- CancerTYPE ID requires as few as 300-500 viable tumor cells and is compatible with limited biopsy specimens such as FNAs, cytological specimens, and small core needle biopsies
- CancerTYPE ID routinely employs laser guided microdissection to enrich for tumor specimen

Gene Expression Profiling

- CancerTYPE ID uses a robust real-time RT-PCR platform to detect very small differences in gene expression
- CancerTYPE ID measures and integrates the gene expression of 92 genes, 5 normalization genes and 87 lineage determinant and tissue-specific genes, most of which are not routinely measured by IHC

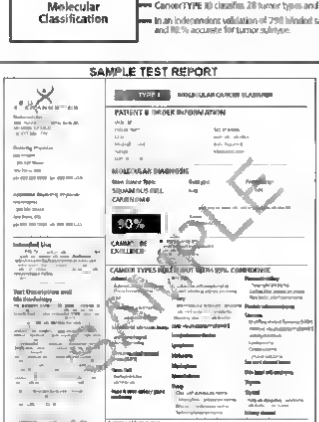
Reference Tumor Database & Algorithm

- CancerTYPE ID uses a computational algorithm to predict the patient's tumor type based on the degree of similarity of the sample's 92-gene expression profile to a reference database of gene expression profiles. The reference database contains gene expression information from over 2,000 tumor specimens of known histogenesis, and representing ~95% of all solid tumors based on incidence
- the CancerTYPE ID algorithm provides a predicted main type and any sub-types in rank-order by relative probabilities, which are based on the tumor's gene expression similarity to tumors of these types in the reference database

Molecular Classification

- CancerTYPE ID classifies 28 tumor types and 50 tumor subtypes.
- In an independent validation of 2998 blinded samples, the molecular diagnosis was 87% accurate for main tumor type and 86% accurate for tumor subtype.

SAMPLE TEST REPORT



Interpreting CancerTYPE ID Test Results

MOLECULAR DIAGNOSIS
The tumor type with the highest probability is reported as the molecular diagnosis. In this example, the patient's tumor has 90% probability of matching squamous cell carcinoma (non-lung subtype) within the CancerTYPE ID reference database. If the highest probability is <70% the tumor is reported as indeterminate. In this case, the test report will still indicate tumor types that can be ruled out and those that cannot be excluded.

CAN NOT ID EXCLUDED
When applicable, tumor types from the CancerTYPE ID reference database that show some gene expression profile similarity to the patient's sample such that they cannot be excluded from diagnostic consideration will be listed here in relative rank order

RULE OUTS
The CancerTYPE ID test report also lists tumor types that can all be ruled-out with 95% confidence. In an independent validation of 2998 blinded reported Rule-outs were 95% accurate. This may provide useful differential diagnostic information when two or more potential tumor types are suspected and one or more cannot may be indicated in the test note.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts, and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

August 17, 2017

Dear Families

On Monday, August 21, 2017...the moon will move in front of the sun, partially blocking it from our view. In Harvard, the sun is never completely covered during the eclipse. Viewing the sun without a proper filter can cause permanent damage. To ensure student safety, school activities will occur indoors.

The eclipse begins in our district at 11:52 a.m. and ends at 2:40 p.m. Nearly 80% of the sun will be covered at 1:17 p.m. Students will be able to view a live stream of the eclipse here:

https://eclipse2017.nasa.gov/eclipse-live-stream

Parents and guardians may sign out their students to view the eclipse, and we advise all families to adhere to NASA's safety guidelines.

If you have any questions, please contact our building directly.

Sincerely,

Dr. Judy Hoerter

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

Before you check Box A, B, or C below, see whether you received any Form(s) 1099-B or substitute statement(s) from your broker. A substitute statement will have the same information as Form 1099-B. Either will show whether your basis (usually your cost) was reported to the IRS by your broker and may even tell you which box to check.

Part I Short Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held 1 year or less are short term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note: You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the totals directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you aren't required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

On To Ashford

The town of Ashford, nestled snuggly in the Succotash valley, was named for settler Walter Ashford who put down roots in the area in 1885. Ashford may have thought that he was improving his own land claim when he realized that he was squatting on Northern Pacific property which he was then compelled to purchase. Walter Ashford plotted the town in anticipation of the arrival of Tacoma Eastern railroad in 1904. (Reese/Engle)

In 1905 three national hiking and outdoors clubs, the Mazama, the Sierras, and the Appalachians, combined for one massive assault on the summit of Mt. Rainier. This was exactly the type of exposure that Bagley and the brass of the railroad were hoping for. The media hype reached epidemic proportions once the Park terminal had been established at Ashford. The Tacoma Daily News stated that no other railroad on earth passed through a more scenic landscape than that of the Paradise Valley Route of the Tacoma Eastern. As the mountain climbing event approached on the immediate horizon, it became evident that this undertaking was going to be much more involved than just running a special passenger train or two. Certainly some of the railroad employees underestimated the scope of the climb and the logistics necessary to assist the climbing climbers in accomplishing their goal. With the corresponding stress related to running a railroad terminus and the knowledge that the world's largest mountaineering expedition to date was to pass through Ashford, the Tacoma Eastern Railroad's first station agent, at the remote mountain village, snapped. He was shipped off to Western State Hospital for an examination and was never heard from again. (French)

It was on or near the 8th of July, 1905, when Conductor French climbed down from his caboose after another successful shift of bringing logs down the gulch to Tacoma only to find a notice pinned to the company bulletin board inside the Tacoma depot stating that he was to report to Vice-President Bagley's office "At Once." French perceived that he was to be called out upon the carpet for some misdeed said he reviewed the sins upon his heart before entering the General Manager's office. French was ushered in—no waiting

I faced President Bagley across the big desk.

"We're in a jam at Ashford Harry. The agent is in the bag house. Most of the freight for these three thousand people has been shipped to Ashford. Their special trains will roll in there next week. I'll send you up there if you'll take it. Walker tells me that you're the only man he'd like put in charge."

"I'll take it on one condition."

"Name it."

"I've got a boy about sixteen years old. I want him as my assistant. He'll do what I tell him. I want my two brakemen on the day the special trains roll in for the same reason. After that day you may have the brakemen back."

Bagley nodded. "Fix it that way..."

French preferred to ride the trains than to be handcuffed to a desk all day, listening to the incessant chatter of telegraph dots and dashes even though he could decipher them as easily as the English language. French knew that he could not handle the task Bagley laid out before him without help. His son Chauncey "Chat" French was hired especially by the railroad as the Assistant Station Agent. Chat's main responsibility would be the handling and storage of several tons of mountain climbing gear that arrived in advance of the climbing parties. When Chat arrived at the Ashford depot...he found the freight room filled to overflowing with luggage, grips, gear knapsacks and duffels that had piled out into the main waiting room with more being sent to Ashford on every regularly scheduled train. Chat had the dauntless task of sorting out which parcels were to be sent to Longmire's Lodge and which should go to storage. Meanwhile, his father sent an urgent appeal to every hack and driver in the

Checking Your Line Quality

If you think your noisy phone line is causing problems with your modem, check the following.

Check the Line for Noise

First you need to get rid of the dialtone so you can really listen to the line. Dial a number, any number but obviously one which is valid for your area, so that you don't get the dialtone replaced by a busy signal. The easiest and most common across all areas is a "1". Is your dialtone gone? Now listen and really concentrate while you are doing so because you are only going to get 30 seconds before it times out and gets replaced by a busy signal again.

This is the first major step to checking if you have a good line for a modem or not. Is it quiet? No pops, bangs, crackles, creaking, or faint voices in the background from other people's conversations. All or any of these noises will cause you a problem on a high speed modem link.

Just what are these noises? Well, it can be something as simple as a loose screw on a connector block somewhere between you and the exchange, or water getting into one of Telecom's cable ducts and the waterproofing (around the cable joints) has started to break down. You could have a bad connection in the house somewhere, and not necessarily on the line extension that is feeding your modem. Other people's conversations (called "crosstalk" in the trade) are not so easy to pin down, and are usually more likely to be further "into the system" before the source becomes apparent.

Check the Phone

Let's presume you have one of these noises to some greater or lesser degree. Next you need to check the phone itself. After all, if it is just the phone causing the noise, it won't affect the quality you get from the modem now. If you have a spare phone, take it and plug it into the same socket and then check for noise again. If you don't have a spare phone, it might be worth heading to the local electronics store to pick up an inexpensive phone.

Check the Modem

Let's assume now that you are happy with the perceived "quietness" of the line. Now you move to the modem. How can you check if you have a dodgy plug or socket associated with the modem? Well, surprisingly, it's reasonably simple but you'll need to be fairly quick in carrying out the next "test". What you are going to do is to get the modem to go on line, but not actually dial out a full number (similar to what you did just now but using the modem instead). To do this you'll also need to have a phone plugged in, too - that's fairly near to where your PC/Modem are. Don't pick up the phone yet.

You're about to enter a command string to the modem, so you'll need to have the PC powered up and talking to the modem with whatever piece of communication software you use. In the case of Procomm, Smartcom, SmartTerm, Zterm, etc., it's simply a case of just firing up the software and getting to a terminal screen with the "OK" prompt from the modem. If you normally use Int Reader or

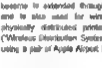
Verizon FiOS and an Apple Airport Extreme Network Working Together

Patience does have its rewards. After waiting years for Verizon's FiOS ("Fiber Optic Service") to become available in our area we have recently been able to finally roll ourselves of various combinations of DSL ("Digital Subscriber Line"), cable, and satellite television services. Our FiOS service has been installed for awhile now, long enough for me to declare it is far superior television and internet service than provided we have been used to the past.

Internet speeds have been amazingly fast and rock-solid, especially based supposed to the one-of-day variability we experienced with cable. We subscribe to Verizon's 20/5 Internet service, which is supposed to provide approximately 20 Mbps download and 10 Mbps Airport speeds. According to the results from Speakfast.net our actual speeds over the past few months have been closer to 22.84 Mbps supposed and 14.18 Mbps upload. That's close enough to advertised for me and incredibly based than what was supposed to be provided by the Comcast Boat service previously installed (18 Mbps download and 2 Mbps Airport advertised speeds. Just rarely if ever achieved!

The FiOS 2G/3 service includes the use of an Actiontec MI424WR wireless broadband router. The use of this router is not optional. This device is the main system (including voice calls from the fiber machine outside of the house to the modem inside of the house) and it is required to manage the distribution of the FiOS television signal to the set-top boxes at your location. The brand new four (4) Ethernet speeds as well as Wi-Fi capability. However the wireless become of the router is not needed if you prefer to use wireless devices to provide a Wi-Fi access point.

We use an Apple Airport Extreme base station to our board to provide wireless network access for notebook computers and other wireless the Nintendo Wii iPod Touch iPhone and AppleTV). The Apple become become to extended throughout the house and to also used for wireless access to physically distributed printers via a WDS ("Wireless Distribution System") configuration using a pair of Apple Airport Express devices.



With an desire to give up the Apple wireless network, we chose to ignore the become capability of the FiOS router. That can be done simply enough by just connecting the Ethernet input of the Airport Extreme to one of the MI424WR's Ethernet outputs. That by itself will have you up and running as soon as the FiOS boxes has been activated. However it does not address the provided wireless interference wireless the Airport towards and the MI424WR or the

Product Description

George Harrison was always known as the 'quiet Beatle' As part of the biggest band in pop history he took a back seat to Paul McCartney and John Lennon, but his talent shone through in the composition of classic songs such as 'Something' and 'Here Comes The Sun' In his solo career he occasionally threatened to eclipse both John and Paul on the world stage and he joined forces with Bob Dylan, Tom Petty, Roy Orbison and Jeff Lynne to create the massively successful supergroup the Traveling Wilburys. However, the success of his professional life was often met by turmoil in his private life and the loss of first wife Patti to best friend Eric Clapton, the traumatic attempt on his life by a knife wielding intruder and his final struggle against cancer meant that George Harrison's life was nothing if not dramatic. Bestselling author Marc Shapiro has exclusively interviewed friends and former colleagues of the enigmatic guitar legend. This revealing biography reaffirms Harrison's importance as an innovative and hugely talented musician and shows that as a member of the most important band ever as well as in his multi-faceted career after the Beatles, George Harrison was no ordinary man

Iowa Homebuyers Residents: If you are applying for a home payment contract, you are entitled, if you ask, to receive a written estimate of the monthly payment amount for refinancing the balloon payments in accord with the creditor's existing refinance programs. Equilibrium

A reaction is at equilibrium when the rate of the forward reaction is equal to the rate of the reverse reaction. (When the rate of making products is equal to the rate of making reactants)When concentration remain constant over time

Large K – products are favored

Small K – reactants are favored

Q<K –shifts to products Q>K –shifts to reactants

If two reactions can be added together to make a third reaction the K of the third reaction is $K_1 * K_2$

Le Chatelier's Law

Concentration – goes to the side with less – only applies to aqueous or gaseous

Volume- V↓ = more moles of gas V↓ = less moles of gas, no gas or same moles of gas no effect on equilibrium

Temperature- T↑= endothermic direction, T↓=exothermic direction

Adding Inert Gas- Total pressure increases but partial pressures stay same, so no effect on equilibrium

Acids and Bases

The greater the value of K, the greater the extent of dissociation and the stronger the

Strong Acids

- Dissociate completely
- Never reach equilibrium with conjugate bases, so no K
- Conjugate base is extremely weak

Salts (Conjugates of)

SB+SA –neutral WB+SA –acidic SB+WA –basic

WB+WA –depends on the relative strengths of the conjugate acid and base

Buffer

- Solution with a very stable pH
- Equal amounts of weak acid/base + its conjugate (Salt)
- Enough strong base to neutralize half of the weak acid
- Common Ion Effect?
- Hydrogen ions are neutralized by the base and hydroxide ions are neutralized by the acid
- When an absorbing an acid for a buffer solution pick one with a pK_a close to the desired pH

Nonmetallic oxide + water →acid

Metallic oxide + water →acid

Titrations

Acid + Base →Water + Salt (neutralization)

Used to determine the concentration of an acid. Base of known concentration is slowly added to acid

Equivalence point -([H+]-[OH-]) pH at which all acid is used up. Use this pH to find [H+] of acid

Indicator- shows equivalence point. Phenolphthalein – clear in acidic, pink in basic. Litmus – pink in acidic blue in basic

M dpoint: Enough base to neutralize half of the acid, $V_{midpoint} = \frac{1}{2} V_{eq\,pt}$ $[H^+] = [A^-]$ Concentration of acid= concentration of conjugate base ($pH=pK_a$)

SB + SA eq point =7 because H+ + OH- → HOH

WA by SB eq point >7 because HA – OH- → HOH + A-

WB by SA eq point < 7 because B + H+ → BH+

Gas Laws

Standard Temperature and Pressure (STP)

- Pressure – 1 atm= 760 mm Hg
- Temperature 0°—273 K
- 1 mole of gas = 22.4 L

Kinetic Molecular Theory

- Kinetic energy of an ideal gas is directly proportional to its absolute temperature
- The average kinetic energy depends only on the temperature, not on the identity of gas
- Volume of ideal gas particle is insignificant compared with the volume of the container
- No intermolecular forces for ideal gases
- Gas molecules are in constant motion, colliding with one another and container

Gas Laws

Gay-Lussac: $\frac{P}{T}$ Boyle: PV Charles: $\frac{V}{T}$ PV= nRT MP=DRT

Dalton's Law Total pressure of a mixture of gases is sum of all the partial pressures of gases. Partial pressure of a gas is directly proportional to the moles of the gas. $P_a = P_{tot}(X_a)$

Van der Waals Equation

- At low temperature or high pressure, gases are not ideal because gas molecules are packed so closely together
- The volume of the gas molecules becomes significant. Actual volume will be greater than the volume predicted by the ideal gas equation
- Gas molecules attract one another and stick together, because van der Waals forces become significant. Since fewer particles move around to create pressure, real pressure is lower than ideal pressure

Stoichiometry

Double replacement- only forms if precipitate, gas or water/weak acid is formed

Moles and Gases

- At STP 1 mole = 22.4 L

Moles and Solutions

- Moles= (M) (L)
- Moles=(m) (kg)

Empirical Formula, Simplest ratio

Molecular Formula, Actual formula

Beer's Law

Concentration of ions is directly proportional to the absorbance of the solution measured by the spectrophotometer A=abc

Metallic Carbonate→Metallic Oxide +CO2

Metallic Chlorate→Metallic Chloride+O2

$(NH_4)_2CO_3 \rightarrow 2NH_3 + CO_2 + H_2O$

$NH_4OH^- \rightarrow NH_3 + H_2O$

$2H_2O_2 \rightarrow 2H_2O + O_2$

Greater Ketchikan Chamber of Commerce

Ketchikan, AK 99901

Dear Valued Commercial Fisherman

The Ketchikan Chamber of Commerce is keenly aware of the huge contribution to the economy that is made by our commercial fishermen. Fishing and seafood processing are two of the largest contributors to the Ketchikan economy. We have been approached by other local fishermen who, in joining the Chamber of Commerce, are also looking to have their voice heard.

Your support for the organization, its advocacy and its activities is integral to our success in sustaining Ketchikan business. Remember, the Chamber is here for you and your fishing business. We provide support and advocacy as a voice for business in discussions with the City, The borough, and The State. Helping your business to continue to succeed is our job.

Here's what the Chamber offers:

- ✓ Advocacy at the City Borough State and Federal levels for business-friendly policy
- ✓ Your voice in our communications regarding Ketchikan business on our two weekly radio shows and First City Forum
- ✓ Chamber Newsletter for up-to-date information on Activities and Events in Ketchikan
- ✓ Ability to post Advertising about your services, jobs available connections
- ✓ Networking opportunities: Lunches, After Hours Celebrations of the Stars, Business Expo
- ✓ Access to the Chamber Directory for information or promotion
- ✓ Use privileges at Chamber meeting suites in the Plaza
- ✓ Eligibility for Board or Committee service and involvement

With this letter we are asking that you consider two things:

1. Join the Ketchikan Chamber of Commerce. We are offering a special one year rate of $175 for licensed fisherman and women. We realize this represents something like a ton of a simon. To join just go to www.ketchikanchamber.com. The application takes a couple of minutes. Be sure to check "fill me later" as we can apply the discount. If you prefer to do this in person drop by our offices on the second floor of the Plaza. (You don't have to do this, all visually. It just helps us stay on top of local issues and supports pro-business policies with the City, Borough and State.)

2. Participate in our Celebration of the Stars annual recognition dinner on January 28. Our theme this year is "Navigating the Waters of Ketchikan's Maritime Industry." This is a full evening of entertainment and business recognition. The Bundrant family from Trident Seafoods will be joining us as guests of honor. Tickets are $65 each or a table for $600. The party is at Ted Ferry Civic Center 6-10 p.m.

Please contact me with any questions you have regarding Chamber activities, community involvement, creative ideas, or advocacy issues. We have a committed and enthusiastic Board of Directors working hard for our members. Remember, after all, this is YOUR Chamber!

Getting your "money's-worth" is usually about maintaining an ongoing conversation with the Chamber. We would love to hear your stories and suggestions for how we can continue to support our local fishermen and women and all Ketchikan business. Other information about the benefits of membership is available on our website. Please visit: www.ketchikanchamber.com or call me at 907-225-3184.

Bill Sivell

Child Assessment Form

Purpose

These questions are designed to give you the information needed to provide the best, most appropriate care for children. This information is confidential and parents must be reassured it will not be shared without their written permission.

Experts in the field recommend completing an assessment form for each child. It can help start mutual trust and respect that will develop into a strong, cooperative partnership between parents and caregivers.

The assessment should be completed prior to enrollment. Give parents an opportunity to review your enrollment forms and parent handbook before you complete the assessment form. The parent handbook or operational policies set forth your program's philosophy and values.

The enrollment interview is the time to obtain critical information about the child. It also provides parents an opportunity to assess your program and determine if it is best suited for their child's needs.

Dumb Criminal

Anthony Perone, 20, pleaded guilty in a Connecticut court in connection with two stalking letters he admitted to mailing to a woman he had fallen for in the third grade but who apparently had spurned him. The rambling, incoherent letters explicitly threatened death, and Perone had intended to send them anonymously, in that he wrote no return address on the envelopes. However, he lived with his mother and gave them to her to mail, and unknown to him she had thoughtfully added his name and address before posting them.

I love my job. I really do. I did. I love it so much that I would be something serious, wrong with me. To be surrounded by delicious food and scrumptious people day after day is a dream in the utmost sense of the word.

Last night was no exception.

Once upon the food editors at my parent company got together for a round of meetings and good eats. And for the second time in a row, we have made the decision to go potluck-style instead of dining out. Since we have a huge test kitchen, it makes as well as for us to cook a few extra eats than ordering off a menu and tossed

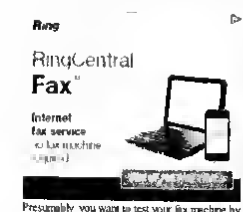
How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?



Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to FaxZero.com — a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Attaching the Feet

1. Place the belly fabric piece on the table right side up.
2. Draw a medium glue on the edge of the belly piece that is marked with a double notch.
3. Attach a claw to the left hand claws pointing toward the middle and right side up.
4. Repeat for all four feet. Allow the glue to dry.
5. Alternatively, sew the claws in place on the feet.

Sewing the Mole

1. Place the two side body pieces together with right sides facing each other. Pin the two pieces together.
2. Sew the two side body pieces together from nose to tail along the spine (top edge) of the mole.
3. Locate notches A and B on the seam body piece. Pin the belly piece to the body piece with right sides together and feet inside.
4. Sew all the way around the hole (the long way) from notch A to notch B as shown on the dotted line on the pattern. Note: Leave the space between A and B open on one side to the stuffing hole.
5. (Optional) If desired, attach the tail from the inside and sew it in place. Alternatively the tail can be attached after the mole is sewn.
6. Remove all pins and turn the mole inside out through the A to B gap. All seams will now be on the inside of the mole and the right side of the fabric should now be on the outside.
7. Stuff the mole with fiberfill stuffing. Be sure to pack the mole with plenty of stuffing, and especially in pack the legs and feet firmly as that will give the mole more stability.
8. Fold in the raw edges from A to B. Pin the edges together as I hand stitch the seam from A to B closed.
9. Attach the eyes and pom pom or stone-shaped nose with glue, or by sewing.
10. Sew a yarn tail onto the mole, if a tail wasn't added in Step 5.

THIS IS MY TEST FAX

In Case of Errors or Questions about your Statement of Account or Regarding Electronic Fund Transfers

If you think your statement of account or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement or receipt, please call POPULAR TELEBANK at the following telephone numbers: (787) 724-3535 (metropolitan area), 1 800 724-3535 (nationwide), hearing impaired telephone service (TDD) (787) 753-1677 (metropolitan area), 1 800 981-5888 (Island), U.S.V.I. and Tortola 1 800 724-3535 or write us at:

Banco Popular de Puerto Rico, Customer Resolution Center, PO Box 362708, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00936-2708.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the First statement on which the error or problem appeared. Tell us your name and account number, transaction date and transaction number, description of the claim or doubt, and the dollar amount of the alleged error.

ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

We will investigate your claim and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will recredit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

PAYMENTS ON SPECIAL CHECKS TO THE RESERVE

The INTEREST CHARGE is computed by applying the DAILY PERIODIC RATE to the Balance Subject to Interest Rate which is determined by adding unpaid balances to all the days included within the billing period and dividing the total by the number of days in said period. The unpaid daily balance within each billing period is figured by adding to the final balance of the previous day any advances or debits and subtracting payments and credits made during the day. For variable rate accounts only: The Periodic Rates and APRs may vary for each billing period.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement: If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: BANCO POPULAR DE PUERTO RICO, Customer Resolution Center, PO Box 362708, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00936-2708. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information. Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount. The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem. If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement. You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question. While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Where we investigate, my some rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

NOTICE

Credit for restrictive checks is provisional until payment of such checks is received.

Test your fax machine without bothering friends

Submitted by Adam on January 16, 2008 2:27pm Rating: 0 votes Adam

I found the test today while trying to see if a fax machine was working correctly. It is always tough testing a fax because you have to have a friend who is home, with a fax, and willing to help. Thanks to a commenter you can try this fast fax service from ESP as well.

This web site lets you enter a fax transmittal, in a few minutes, you will receive a fax fax

If you helped, transmit buying, fax is kept in an Anonymous[illegible]

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

Submitted by Smart Computer User on December 9, 2008 12:08pm.

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving it fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test fax send functionality of your fax machine, send it one page fax to 1-512-646-0292 (a business in southern California) it plays its familiar transmitting, press your test transmit to Fax Tip: http://Number.net/ —it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that transmit. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the top. Check the thumbnail to see a large transmit.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: http://faxzero.com/ then type fax you have faxed to free to anywhere in the United States and Canada within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it and automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Test Fax from Westley

Form W-4 (2014)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2014 expires February 17, 2015. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exception. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding based on allowances claimed may not be enough to cover your tax liability. For example, if you have more than one job, this may result in too little withholding.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependents or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the correct amount is being withheld. Withholding for taxes is not required to be exactly right, but withholding should be reasonably close to the actual tax liability.

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Personal Allowances Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

A	Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent.	A
B	Enter "1" if: • You are single and have only one job; or • You are married, have only one job, and your spouse does not work; or • Your wages from a second job or your spouse's wages (or the total of both) are $1,500 or less.	B
C	Enter "1" for your spouse. But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a working spouse or more than one job. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld.)	C
D	Enter number of dependents (other than your spouse or yourself) you will claim on your tax return	D
E	Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your tax return (see conditions under Head of household above)	E
F	Enter "1" if you have at least $2,000 of child or dependent care expenses for which you plan to claim a credit (Note. Do not include child support payments. See Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, for details.)	F
G	Child Tax Credit (including additional child tax credit). See Pub. 972 Child Tax Credit, for more information. • If your total income will be less than $65,000 ($95,000 if married) enter "2" for each eligible child; then enter "1" if you have three to six eligible children or "2" if you have seven or more eligible children • If your total income will be between $65,000 and $84,000 ($95,000 and $119,000 if married) enter "1" for each eligible child	G
H	Add lines A through G and enter total here. (Note. This may be different than the number of exemptions you claim on your tax return.) ▶	H

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply.

- If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, see the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2.
- If you are single and have more than one job or are married and you and your spouse both work and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $50,000 ($20,000 if married), see the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
- If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line H on line 5 of Form W-4 below.

Separate here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the top part for your records.

Scott Williams – Senior Recruiter
MPRI – ICITAP Program
1320 Braddock Place, Suite 200
Alexandria VA 22314

Dear Mr Williams

In response to the email dated January 24, 2009 and titled MPRI – Possible Future Border Program – Iraq, I am submitting my resume for your consideration

I have over 25 years of Federal law enforcement experience the majority of which was as an Agent or Special Agent with the U.S. Border Patrol or U.S. Customs / Immigration & Customs Enforcement. I also worked 11 years as a Special Agent with the Department of Interior-Bureau of Land Management where I organized led, or participated in narcotics interdiction operations along the U.S./Mexico border. Although I retired from Federal service in 2007, I am a self-employed Contract Investigator for several companies, which conduct background security clearance investigations. As a result, I have a current TOP SECRET security clearance that has been updated as of April 2008. I maintain a physical fitness regimen as well as firearms proficiency

I have reviewed the powerpoint attachment in your email and have made personal inquiries as to the duties required for the position. I believe that my journeyman and supervisory level experience is well suited to the position and that I will perform assigned duties to the benefit of MPRI

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely

John R. McCurley

Support details

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document by selecting Print in the upper-right corner of this page.

Test your fax connection

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the directions below.

NOTE: Be sure that your phone connects correctly and is turned on (some phones connect only after it is connected to a line) and receives a fax. Possibly # before dialing the test fax number will unblock the Caller ID blocking feature on most phones. Many phone companies also can enable you from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or call privacy services.

NOTE: The most troubleshooting a fax can do is send a number to call the connected number option in Many times faxes when calling a test fax This way, even if the card fax fails, an error code will be generated that will guide you to future troubleshooting. This option is Printable in different places on different printers. view (For the product User's Guide for a printer) steps

1. Send a one page black and white test fax to 1-888-fxtstone (1-888-473-2866).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Fax Test Service, we will Printable a result fax to you within the number confirming that we successfully received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a result fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the cable of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the machine for printer setup and configuration.

NOTE: The most common cause of failure is that the fax number that is the Fax Number on the control panel, not even the number of the phone line connected to the fax. Also, ensure that the fax number contains the first 8-digit personal number of the fax machine, including the area code.

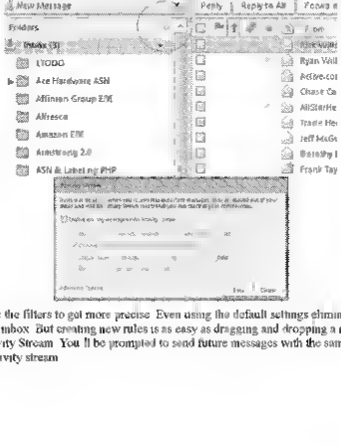
Activity streams

For most of us, the inbox is a busy place. Some messages you need to respond to right away, and others you might want to save to read at a later time. This second category includes newsletters you subscribe to, announcements from your favorite store, and others. They're not spam messages, but you may consider them less important than others.

Zimbra 8 lets you create an Activity Stream to keep track of those messages while moving them out of your inbox. To try this feature, select Mail, click the Action gear icon next to the Folders heading to the left, pick Activity Stream, and then click the Enable checkbox in the Activity Stream dialog box.



You can fine-tune the filters to get more precise. Even using the default settings eliminates a lot of clutter from your inbox. But creating new rules is as easy as dragging and dropping a message from the inbox to the Activity Stream. You'll be prompted to send future messages with the same sender or subject to the Activity stream.

Final Note: DON'T FORGET YOUR FREE GIFT! When you come to our workshop, you will receive a copy of Smart Habits of Investors — compliments of me.
